We ask the indulgence of the children who may see this play dedicating it to a grown-up. We have a serious reason: he is the best friend we have in the world. We have another reason: this grown-up understands everything, even plays about children. We have a third reason: he lives in France where he is hungry and cold. He needs cheering up. If all these reasons are not enough, we will dedicate the play to the child from whom this grown-up grew. All grown-ups were once children - although few of them remember it.

NOTICE

"The Young and Fair" by N. Richard Nash, a comedy-drama dealing with the problems facing a group of girls in a plush junior college, opens at the Gateway Theatre for a three day run beginning August 3rd. "The Young and Fair", to be given by the Gateway Theatre Workshop, will have a limited tour of Long Island at the completion of the Bellport run.
