Gateway Theatre

BELLPORT, L. I., NEW YORK

WHAT IS THE FUNCTION OF THE THEATRE? We believe with Arthur Hopkins: "When a thousand people sit before us, appealingly receptive, how are we to enrich them? How often in our lives has theatre-going been an experience for which we will be forever grateful?... Are we to send people away exalted, compassionate, proud of being human beings, or are we to add to their frustration and cynicism? Chain reactions did not begin with the atomic bomb. It began with ideas. The theatre is essentially a place of ideas. What chain reactions do we want to set in motion?

THIS SEASON MARKS a turning-point in the Gateway's ever changing history, with TEN productions rather than five, and a company of 18 instead of 8.

IN THE BEGINNING the Gateway was nothing but an empty barn and a handful of idealistic actors. Six years ago a press notice said, "The Gateway Players, a recently organized group of young actors will make their bow at 8:30 p. m. tomorrow in Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew", to be presented in the new 'theatre-in-the-round'." The following week a review said "If this youthful, enthusiastic company maintains as high a standard with its next production..... Bellport and the surrounding area is in for an enjoyable summer of interesting theatre."

NOW SUCCESSFUL the Gateway Theatre operates a student workshop which enrolls some thirty resident teenagers as well as adults from this area. Courses in all phases of the theatre are given daily in addition to student productions and dance concerts... the actors in the professional companies providing the drama instruction. Gateway is a member of the American National Theatre and Academy, and the American Educational Theatre Association.

THE ENSEMBLE consists of Sally Pomeran who returns to Bellport after a season in Europe. One of Gateway's founders, now general director, Miss Pomeran has had an extensive career in New York and on tour, the most vivid roles being in "Antigone", "Liliom", "Pygmalion", and "Taming of the Shrew". Educated at Principia College and Columbia University, Miss Pomeran studied drama under Frank Parker and then acted with C. W. T. in N. Y. for 3 yrs. and played leading roles at the Putney Theatre in Vermont. She is now leaving her post as head of the Putney School Drama Dept. to lead the Gateway Players in winter repertory.

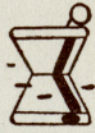

DAVID SHELDON, also a Gateway founder, returns for his sixth acting and directing season in Bellport. Noted for a variety of character roles, Mr. Sheldon played the Gentleman Caller in "Glass Menagerie" and "Imaginary Invalid" last season. Appearances in Illinois, New York and Connecticut include radio acting and experimental TV. Having studied at Principia College and his MFA at Yale Drama School. This season Mr. Sheldon is directing one of his own plays. Mr. Sheldon is now director of Gateway's Student Workshop.

BEVERLY WHITE, directing five of Gateway's ten productions, comes from Arena Stage, Washington, D.C. Formerly director of drama at the Putney School in Vermont, Miss White established the Putney Summer Theatre in 1947 and directed its work for six years. In the summer of 1950 she toured the British Isles with members of her company, representing the U. S. A. in an international festival sponsored by the British Drama League. Miss White has been associated with Weston Playhouse, Rollins Studio and McLean Summer Theatre and has instructed in the theatre departments of Wesleyan Univ. and Sarah Lawrence College.

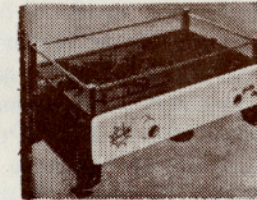

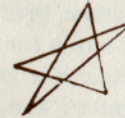

GEORGE BUTLER, one of Gateway's founders, is back after an absence of two seasons during which he played leading roles with America's only professional Gilbert and Sullivan company in N. Y. Gateway audiences will remember him as Earnest in "The Importance of Being Earnest", which he also directed; his Antrobus in "Skin of Our Teeth", his stage manager in

ANITA LOOS

In a profile in the New Yorker magazine in 1926, after Miss Loos became a national figure as a result of her "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes", she was labelled "The Child Wonder" - an apt name for a woman who became a movie scenarist at the age of fourteen for D. W. Griffith, the pioneer film director. An aggressive youngster, she had gotten Griffith's address from a film can and mailed him a script, which was made into a movie called "The New York Hat", with Mary Pickford and Lionel Barrymore.

Following her successes, she and her actor-husband John Emerson, who had collaborated with her on several scripts, retired from writing and shuffled back and forth between Europe and the United States until the crash of 1929.

Miss Loos made a triumphant return to N. Y. in the late forties with "Happy Birthday". In 1949, a musical version of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" proved an even greater success. Miss Loos continued her run of hits with "Gigi", and followed that with adaptations of "Ami-Ami", a French comedy, and another Colette novel, "Cheri".

COLETTE: (Full name - Sidonie Gabrielle Colette Willy)

Though possessed of little formal education, she attained the position of being the most famous, and respected, writer of France during the nineteen-forties and fifties. Then an aged woman, her works had become a part of French life itself.

Her forte has been the revelation of the hearts of women in love, in trouble, in joy. The number of her novels and short stories is enormous. Every possible honor for literary achievement in her country has been hers - including the highest president of the Academie Goncourt.

She spent her youth as a touring vaudeville performer and actress in legitimate plays in Paris. She became a writer thru marriage - her husband Monsieur Will, a publisher, put her to work in her spare time. The quality of her work won a special public. She wrote for a long time under the name of Colette Willy.
