SUMMER THEATRES have long been an important factor in making America's vacations complete and enjoyable and in recent years Summer Theatres have become a major force in shaping the future of their geographic community, a force for the enlargement of the cultural scope of their intellectual community and a business of some importance in their economic community.

SUMMER THEATRE is a recreational attraction for tourists, it is a community project for residents and it is an outstanding example of cultural maturity in any community.

GATEWAY in a short seven years has grown from an ideal and a sparkle in the eyes of a small group of young actor-directors into one of the outstanding summer theatres in the East with a full Equity company and staff, an apprentice program that enrolls some twenty young actors and a theatre workshop and camp for an additional forty students. This growth has been accomplished by the generous support given to Gateway by the community and its visitors and friends.

IN ALL THEATRE, and summer theatre is no exception, there are two sides working together to produce the glamorous whole which results in entertainment. There is you, the audience and there is the company of dedicated actors and technicians.

GATEWAY'S ensemble for the summer season of 1955 consists of:

Sally Pomeran is a Gateway regular, whom you will remember for her characterization of Belinda in Johnny Belinda and Liza in Pygmalion. Miss Pomeran has appeared nationally with the Children's World Theatre, the Bellport Summer Theatre and the Putney Summer Theatre. She has been with the Martha Graham School of Modern Dance and the summer of 1953 lead the British Tour of Drama and Music Festivals. Miss Pomeran has just returned from France where she appeared at the Theatre de Tetre in Paris with Pierre Sonnier and the L'Ecole Internationale de Mime.

Alan MacAteer made his professional Broadway debut in 1919 in the Theatre Guild's production of The Faithful. He was with the original Provincetown Players and in the first productions of many of Eugene O'Neill's plays, such as The Hairy Ape and The Emperor Jones. Since then he has performed regularly on the Broadway stage and with all of the leading stock companies in the U. S. MacAteer also made his movie debut in 1919 and was recently seen in Gentlemen's Agreement and The Naked City. A radio favorite since 1934, he has played the famous Cousin Ed on the Ma Perkins' show. Mr. MacAteer is a TV pioneer, beginning in 1938 and since appearing on all of the major dramatic shows including, Studio One, Kraft, Hallmark and the Robert Montgomery Show.

David Sheldon is one of the major directors of Gateway and this season marks his seventh season as a member of Gateway's artistic policy council. He has performed professionally with The Westhampton Star Theatre, the Cox Theatre and the Bellport Summer Theatre. A graduate of Yale University, he has been a director of The Gateway Theatre School and Workshop and currently coaches at his own professional studios in New York. Mr. Sheldon has delighted audiences at Gateway with such performances as McDonald in Johnny Belinda and Tommy Turner in The Male Animal

ABOUT THE PLAY

The Crucible is concerned with a witch hunt in the Massachusetts village of Salem in 1692. Nineteen inhabitants of Salem were hanged on charges of witchcraft. The hysteria that led to these persecutions was started by a handful of teenage girls who insisted that they had seen visions, that the Devil was at large in Salem and that various citizens had consorted with him. It is beside the point to labor any parallels with the fears and hysterias of the present day world.
