CAN A CADILLAC SURPASS ITS OWN GREAT REPUTATION?

The 1964 Cadillac does just that. In beauty . . . in luxury . . . in performance . . . and in craftsmanship, the new Cadillac creations surpass the famous cars they supersede. Under the hood is a greatly refined engine. It is lighter in weight, quieter and smoother in operation than ever before. And in the way the 1964 Cadillac rides and handles and responds, where, indeed, many believed perfection had been already attained, Cadillac engineers have wrought miracles of improvement.

Who's Who

Lenora Lowe

Douglas Easley

Jane Altman

Montes de Oca

LENORA LOWE — comes to the Gateway stage with a full and exciting background in both opera and musical comedy. Having made many successful appearances with the outstanding operatic companies of both Houston and New York City, Miss Lowe had also lent her wonderful talent to such productions as "Showboat" and "Carousel". Those patrons of the Gateway will also remember her from her fine portrayal of Eliza Doolittle in the recent production of "My Fair Lady".

DOUGLAS EASLEY — has appeared in Shakespeare as well as musical comedy, having earned a municipal citation from the city of Milwaukee for his portrayal of Macbeth in a live TV production of the Shakespearian masterpiece. Having done recent work on the New York Off-Broadway circuit, he traveled to the Gateway, opening his engagement here with a very successful appearance as Higgins in "My Fair Lady".

JANE ALTMAN — a native of Philadelphia, began her stage career while earning her BA in English literature at Temple University with work in TV, radio and stock. Having appeared at the Milford Theatre, Pennsylvania and the Forestburgh Theatre in New York, she moved to New York and became a resident member of the Provincetown Repertory, winning an Off-Broadway award for her performance of Rebecca West in Ibsen's "Rosmersholm". She has most recently completed a fine role in "My Fair Lady" as Mrs. Pearce.

MONTES DE OCA — brings to "Camelot" fine experience and a promising career. Having established himself as an outstanding film star in South America, he has also sung opera and musical comedy. Following was a very successful run of engagements at New York's top night clubs and a series of concerts at Carnegie Hall. His engagement here is part of the Gateway-Columbia plan to create new stars.
