LINCOLN Continental

The Continental life is a way of living.

It may include a plane of your own. Vacations in Europe. Being the first to discover a new restaurant.

It can mean knowing where to go when the trout season opens. A boat for your family. And a home that is distinctly yours.

The Continental life is enjoyed by the kind of person who thinks for himself.

The kind of person who is admired for what he is over what he has.

It is because Lincoln Continental is so naturally a part of his way of living that we call this the Continental life. Continental reflects his individuality, his own good taste. It's a good car. The very best we have to offer.

Standard of the World
IN MOTORING PLEASURE AND OWNER LOYALTY

The year 1967 is unquestionably one of the most exciting and memorable in the history of the Cadillac motor car. Cadillac performance has never before been so responsive nor its many comforts so rewarding. Scores of safety and convenience features contribute greatly to motoring pleasure and peace of mind. You'll surely agree that the Standard of the World has never before been so surprisingly new... or so superbly Cadillac!

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

RUTH ALLAN made her debut as a Broadway actress in a production of "Indian Captive". The same company introduced Jason Robards, Tom Poston, and Lilia Skala. She scored a hit in the original stage version of "Gigi" and later as Anne in "The Diary of Anne Frank". She has had many years of summer stock and lists "Fiorello" and "Oklahoma" as her favorites.

SALLY BUCKSTONE has been a success as a singer as well as an actress. Her club engagements have taken her all over the United States and she leaves for a booking in Florida after she does "Any Wednesday" at Gateway. New York audiences saw her in "The King and I" and in "Never Too Late". Later this season she will return as Adelaide in "Guys and Dolls".

GUS ULRICH has had a rich and varied career in motion pictures, television, and the theatre. He just returned from Rome where he filmed a new movie with Anita Ekberg. He has worked in foreign films with people such as Marcello Mastroiani as well as Hollywood spectacles such as "Ben Hur". On the stage he has been seen in "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" and will star in "Marat/Sade".

CHARLES JOHNSON is a rising young musical comedy personality who has distinguished himself as an actor as well as a singer. A star of the American Light Opera Company, he appeared in "Carousel", "Oklahoma", "The New Moon" and "Guys and Dolls". His dramatic roles have included "Mary, Mary", "Under the Yum Yum Tree", and "Desire Under the Elms".

ROD WHITAKER (Director)

... is a Professor at the University of Texas, as well as one of America's outstanding young directors. His varied background includes motion pictures as well as the stage and he is author of a new book on film soon to be published.

THE PRODUCERS

HARRY C. POMERAN founded Gateway in 1941 and has been managing its business ever since. Active in developing the performing arts center in Bellport for the past 25 years, he is now assisting in the development of a cultural program and educational center for the performing arts in Suffolk County.

DAVID SHELDON has produced or directed over 100 shows since 1950. A member of the Directors Unit of the Actors Studio and an MFA graduate of Yale, he has written, acted, coached, and directed for movies and television as well as the stage. He is currently producing ALLEY OOP, a new musical to open on Broadway next season.

GENE HACKMAN

... who starred as Cass in the original Broadway production of ANY WEDNESDAY with Sandy Dennis and Don Porter, got his start at the Gateway Playhouse.

JOAN McCALL

... wife of David Sheldon and daughter-in-law of H.C. Pomeran is currently starring on Broadway in "Barefoot in the Park" with Sylvia Sidney and Jules Munshin. She too got her start at Gateway.

MURIEL RESNIK

Author

Though Muriel Resnik will be seeing her first play reach Broadway, she has an impressive list of publications to her credit. Her first book was Life Without Father, published in 1956. She followed this with House Happy in 1958. Two years later she brought out Girl in the Turquoise Bikini, which will soon be seen as a film. The year 1960 was also when she started work on Any Wednesday. Miss Resnik is married to photographer Wallace Litwin.
