WHO'S WHO

CLAY COLE

(John) a veteran of over 10 years of starring on television panel shows, variety shows, quiz games and dance parties, is best known for "The Clay Cole Show" which he also wrote and produced and was Channel 11's highest rated program. Having starred in summer theatre packages and touring productions of such plays as "The Moon is Blue", "The Music Man", and "Bye Bye Birdie", his first motion picture was "Twist Around the Clock" for Columbia Pictures. He has recorded as a singer for two major record companies and has headlined on the night club circuit. Between engagements Clay and his wife Sandy help manage the "Nepentha", formerly known as "The Basin Street East", owned by Sandy's father.

JOAN McCALL

(Barbara) made her Broadway debut in a leading role in Evan Hunter's "A Race of Hairy Men". She went directly into the National Company of "Barefoot in the Park" with Lynn Bari, receiving rave notices across the country in 42 states. Returning to New York she took over for Connie Stevens in "The Star Spangled Girl" playing opposite Tony Perkins and Dick Benjamin until producer Saint Subber moved her into the Broadway company of "Barefoot in the Park" with Sylvia Sidney and Jules Munshin. After touring last summer in "Don't Drink the Water" with Hans Conried she went out on tour again as the star of "Star Spangled Girl", with Sandy Baron. She is married to director David Sheldon.

LYMAN WARD

(Alan) recently returned from the National Bus and Truck tour of Neil Simon's "The Star Spangled Girl" with Joan McCall and Sandy Baron. Originally from Canada, he has appeared on major television networks and in most cities in both the United States and Canada. He has been featured in tours and productions of "Mary Mary", "Bus Stop", "South Pacific", "Look Homeward Angel", "Mister Roberts", "Tea and Sympathy" and "Come Blow Your Horn". His athletic skills include speed ice skating, skiing, varsity football and basketball and swimming.

WOODROW LAWN

(Robert) was seen earlier this summer as George in Edward Albee's "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" He has played a wide variety of roles such as Big Daddy in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof", Willy Loman in "Death of a Salesman", and Claudius in "Hamlet". A graduate of New York University and Shrivensham University (England) he has been a professor of the Humanities at Webb Institute and a Colonel in the U. S. Air Force Reserve.

ARTHUR ED FORMAN

(Sam Loren) moves with equal aplomb between theatre, films and TV. During the 1969 season he created the role of Uncle Eugene in the New York premiere of the controversial play "Tango"
