"THE PRICE"

was originally directed on Broadway by ULU GROSBOARD, who did his first professional directing here at the Gateway Playhouse. Mr. Grosbard won the critic's award as the best Broadway Director for his production of "The Subject was Roses", on Broadway. The talents of Arthur Miller and Ulu Grosbard were first brought together here at Gateway when "A View From the Bridge" was given its first full-length premiere.

ARTHUR MILLER

has won the Pulitzer Prize and is America's greatest living playwright. His "Death of a Salesman", "All My Sons" and "The Crucible", won immediate acclaim. His "After the Fall" was the first production produced by Lincoln Center and was later followed there with his "Incident at Vichy". Once married to Marilyn Monroe, he is married to photographer Inge Morath.
