the delicious musical treat

OPENS
TUES. SEPT. 1

The nostalgic Twenties come roaring back to the Gateway Sept. 1, via that delicious Musical THE BOY FRIEND. This is the hilarious Musical Comedy that introduced Julie Andrews to Broadway.

Released to Gateway direct from its Broadway run (which starred Judy Carnes) and prior to its National Tour, the one-week Gateway engagement will have all the gaiety and charm of the original.

The great popular appeal of THE BOY FRIEND stems from its flapper costumes, the flamboyance of the Twenties, the Charleston, pure fun and light-hearted entertainment for the entire family.

The special Labor Day treat will play for one week only and will climax the most successful season in the history of Gateway.

CHILDREN'S THEATRE

A MUSICAL
 THE UGLY DUCKLING

Thurs. & Sat. AUG. 27, 29 —
 SEPT. 3, 5 11:00 a.m.

"THE UGLY DUCKLING" - is a charming fairy tale, based on a short story by A. A. Milne, who wrote the "Winnie the Pooh" Classics. It all takes place in the mythical kingdom of Rasheeda, where the king and queen are trying desperately to marry off their (to be blunt about it) ugly daughter. A handsome prince is on his way to court her, so they devise a scheme wherein the daughter's beautiful maid temporarily assumes the place of her mistress and vice-versa. Mistaken identities, budding romances and wild chases abound, as the story finally climaxes in a wild quadruple wedding ceremony. Children of all ages will love it. The songs, dances and dialogue are entertaining throughout, and afterwards they'll want to meet the cast. Don't miss it, our last Show of the 1970 summer season!
