About the Play

"....be free, no gullt, be whoever you are, do whatever you want - just as long as you don't hurt anyone."

This utopian philosophy incorporates many concepts which supply lyrics for a show comprised almost exclusively of rock musical numbers. In the age of Aquarius, a time of harmony and understanding, sex and drugs are used as vehicles to evade reality and the establishment. Skin colors are insignificant. Imagination lends beauty to a dreary existence. The spirit of communal living finds its expression in yearnings, affection, common needs, awareness and a desire to partake.

As a social commentary of our times, HAIR provides an insight into the philosophy of the flower children of the '60s,

As the first and most successful, of the rock musicals, HAIR provides a new element in musical theatre entertainment.
