About Gateway Playhouse

GATEWAY now receives national recognition as one of the leading summer theatre organizations in America. First established in 1949 in a Barn Theatre with performances in the round, GATEWAY in the 60's built a modern air-conditioned theatre with a full size Broadway proscenium stage. The quality of performances have brought agents, producers, critics and directors to GATEWAY PLAYHOUSE THEATRE PRODUCTIONS. It is now considered an excellent talent showcase from New York and Hollywood.

Originally begun as a Pomeran family organization, the theatre is now operated by Stan & Ruth Pomeran Allan and the Allan family. Robin Joy Allan, a member of the Gateway Staff has appeared in numerous productions over the years. Audiences will remember her for her portrayal as Gloria in "Wait Until Dark", Chava in "Fiddler on the Roof"; Josie in "GEORGE M"; Brigitta in "The Sound Of Music" and Anybody's in last years production of "West Side Story". Robin will be dividing her time between Gateway's stage and working with the Gateway's student training center. Paul Allan who has also appeared on the Gateway stage as Young Patrick in "Mame" and Kurt in "Sound of Music" is one of the vital members of the Gateway's Technical Staff.

David Pomeran Sheldon has established his own Motion Picture Companies: Mid-America Pictures and Rising Glen Productions, recently producing "Project Kill", "Sheba Baby" and "Grizzly".

Sally Pomeran Harris, one of Gateway founders, is head of the drama department at The Villa Julie Jr. College in Baltimore and is active in theatre in the city of Baltimore.

Mr. Harry C. Pomeran has retired from full participation in GATEWAY operations, but continues as an active consultant. GATEWAY Management acknowledges the untiring efforts and unselfish support through all the years of Gateway's history of Mrs. Libby Pomeran. Although her physical presence will be missed, her love and devotion to Gateway and its family is ever present.

GATEWAY PLAYHOUSE

With his first supporting role here at Gateway several years ago, Stanley Bojarski immediately captured the attention of veteran theatre goers. He stepped into a small but important role in "Anything Goes" and he was on his way. Since that time he has demonstrated his versatility and enormous energy in every performance. The role of the Music Man is probably the most challenging and demanding of any role in modern musical theatre. The Music Man conducts the story to its happy conclusion, interspersed with nuances and shades of character are highlights of fun and comedy. There is pathos too as well as your traditional musical comedy romance. All of these qualities on stage developed by Mr. Bojarski in his varied career make him an ideal actor for the role. Gateway audiences will remember his many outstanding performances: King Herod in Jesus Christ Superstar, Captain Andy in Showboat, Buffalo Bill in Annie Get Your Gun, Gaetana Prople in The Ritz, Margaret Mead in Hair and Uncle Himmy in No, No, Nanette. Now it's the Music Man in his most polished performance yet.

ABOUT THE SHOW

Robert Durkin again stages the production with that special flair and style that typifies a real Gateway musical. There is something magical and exciting that happens when Stanley Bojarski takes center stage surrounded by an enthusiastic and talented dancing and singing company, plus that something extra from the veteran character actors and actresses in The River City family. Add to that the pure charm and youthful spirit of the River City kids, and you have a sure winner.
