GATEWAY HISTORY
A Family Dream Realized

The summer of '51 marked the beginning of the Gateway Playhouse and it has grown to be one of the leading summer theatres in the country. Family operated by Mr. Harry Pomeran and his wife Libby and their children, Sally, David and Ruth, up until 1974, it has continued to bring outstanding theatre to L.L. audiences. Its' beginnings were in the original barn theatre and its' early players were such famous stars as Gene Hackman and Robert Duvall. During the early 1960's, the new air-conditioned proscenium theatre was built and Gateway then became the Columbia Pictures Talent Farm, training many of their rising new stars. Gateway patrons will remember seeing George Gobel, Robert Cummings, Dick Shawn, Dodie Goodman, Geraldine Page and Hans Conreid, among others during the middle 1960's. In the 1970's Stan and Ruth Pomeran Allan and their family, Robin Joy and Paul, assumed the management of the Gateway, which continues to offer professional theatre at its best.

The Playhouse offers Musicals and Comedies direct from Broadway and has received critical acclaim for the unique staging and exciting choreography and vocal excellence. Gateway has been a vital training ground for many stars of the future, and students come from all parts of the world, for training and theatre participation.

Many young performers recently seen on the Gateway stage are now appearing on Broadway, T.V., in national touring companies and major motion pictures. Mrs. Sally Pomeran Harris, will return to Gateway this summer, as Teacher-Director. During the winter months, she is active with theatre groups in Baltimore and is head of the Drama Dept. at the Villa Julie Junior College in Maryland. Mr. David Sheldon (Pomeran) is now producing films in Hollywood and is presently working on a soon to be released film "The Concission" with Glenn Ford and Maximillian Schell.

The Allan family, together with the Pomeran family, wish to acknowledge the love, devotion, and untiring efforts of Harry and Libby Pomeran. Their constant unselfish support in behalf of Gateway, has helped to inspire others and although they are no longer with us, their spiritually impelled purpose continues to be ever present.
