As regular patrons of the Gateway Playhouse you are familiar with our excellent reputation for presenting Broadway Musicals and Comedies that carry the distinctive Gateway label. Many theatre goers have complimented us on how much better they enjoyed musicals here as compared to Broadway. Either the story was more vividly portrayed or the genuine feelings of the characters was more meaningfully expressed at Gateway. These theatre-goers are very discerning and have come to these conclusions independently. Of course we agree with them. It is our concept to offer you the essence of a Musical and yet make it entertaining and as real an experience in the theatre as possible.

Often we choose a conventional Musical that enjoyed great success in its B'way run, like Shenandoah or No, No, Nanette. Sometimes we select a controversial Musical that stirred up wide discussion and debate like Hair, The Ritz, or Jesus Christ Superstar. We then make every effort to present vivid aspects of the Musical that clearly define the controversy and yet reduce offensive material without diluting the character or precept of the original. We do that in order for the theatre-goer to "hold on" through to the end and then able to make a value judgement as to what the Play was attempting to say? Whether the audience understood the message? and finally do you disagree or agree with the point of view? Many times it is a bold satire or subtle humor that points up a flaw in modern society of currently accepted standards or beliefs.

In presenting the Rocky Horror Show we hope to accomplish several things. Above all it must be entertaining so several dance sequences have been added by our Director-Choreographer Robert Durkin which were not in the original stage play. Secondly, although the movie the Rocky Horror Picture Show based on the stage play has achieved wide notoriety our production will be closer to the original play and not the movie. The theme concerns the traditional Frankenstein monster plot, except with a number of deviations and we mean "deviations" Dr. Frank-N-Furter is a transvestite who creates a monster (handsome-blonde-male) for his own purposes. However things go astray and we are introduced to many weird situations and events, all in broad satire. There is listenable rock music and good natured fun. We offer the production as another in Gateway's far-out experiences into a new dimension of theatre. The Rocky Horror Show should not be taken seriously although there is an underlying biting critique of modern society and today's materialistic values.

GATEWAY HISTORY A Family Dream Realized

The summer of '51 marked the beginning of the Gateway Playhouse and it has grown to be one of the leading summer theatres in the country. Family operated by Mr. Harry Pomeran and his wife Libby and their children Sally, David and Ruth, up until 1974, it has continued to bring outstanding theatre to L.I. audiences. Its' beginnings were in the original barn theatre and its' early players were such famous stars as Gene Hackman and Robert Duvall. During the early 1960's, the new air-conditioned proscenium theatre was built and Gateway then became the Columbia Pictures Talent Farm, training many of their rising new stars. Gateway patrons will remember seeing George Gobel, Robert Cummings, Dick Shawn, Dodie Goodman, Geraldine Page and Hal Conreid, among others during the middle 1960's. In the 1970's Stan and Robin Pomeran Allan and their family, Robin Joy and Paul, assumed the management of the Gateway, which continues to offer professional theatre at its best.

The Playhouse offers Musicals and Comedies direct from Broadway and has received critical acclaim for the unique staging and exciting choreography and vocal excellence. Gateway has been a vital training ground for many stars of the future, and students come from all parts of the world, for training and theatre participation.

Many young performers recently seen on the Gateway stage are now appearing on Broadway, T.V., in national touring companies and major motion pictures. Mrs. Sally Pomeran Harris, will return to Gateway this summer, as Teacher-Director. During the winter months, she is active with theatre groups in Baltimore and is head of the Drama Dept. at the Villa Julie Junior College in Maryland. Mr. David Sheldon (Pomeran) is now producing films in Hollywood and is presently working on a soon to be released film "The Concission" with Glenn Ford and Maximillian Schell.

The Allan family, together with the Pomeran family, wish to acknowledge the love, devotion, and untiring efforts of Harry and Libby Pomeran. Their constant unselfish support in behalf of Gateway, has helped to inspire others and although they are no longer with us, their spiritually impelled purpose continues to be ever present.
