BK & THE BAR is more than a restaurant

The following excerpts are taken from: The Long Island Advance, March 31, 1983 by JoAnn McGrath.

If you applauded the salvation of the London Bridge - despite the unsettling vision of its new digs being in the Arizona desert - you'll be enchanted to know that Skitch Henderson's popular Manhattan watering hole, Daly's Dandelion, is alive and well - if not intact - and living in Bellport.

The "porch" from that famous and recently demolished Third Avenue meeting place is now part of the BK on Main Street.

It has now expanded from a soda fountain atmosphere (albiet pizzazzier than most soda dispensing establishments), into a full-fledged and elegant dining room with a fully stocked bar that dominates the main dining area.

Its three-sided shape - refashioned by Bob and Steve from the original counter - is bound to please many seeking social diversion.

The BK will still serve up the very special homemade dishes for which it has become known - but more of them. Helping to keep the kitchen producing its specialties will be a super cookerwoman, Pam Raymond, who has graced the kitchens of the Old Inlet Inn in Bellport and the Casino Beach Inn on Fire Island.

The BK is open for breakfast on weekends only. Lunch and dinner are served seven days a week and, after 11 p.m., there is a supper menu available.

Reservations are not accepted.

WHO'S WHO

JAMES FONTAINE - Makes his first appearance at Gateway after having completed the starring role of Claude in a Galt McDermott revival of "Hair."

James was hired for the much sought-after role of P.T. Barnum after a grueling three-day audition process, where over two hundred candidates were auditioned.

James is originally from Maine but he now makes his home in New York City. He studied theatre at Wagner College with other recent Gateway favorites Tony Ricotta, E.J. Carroll, and Michele Van Note.

James' natural abilities have made him a prime contender for such recent Broadway shows as "Merrily We Roll Along," "Album" and most recently he just returned from Europe after doing a six month tour of "West Side Story."

Although new to the Gateway stage, Mr. Fontaine is not a newcomer to some of the members of this production. Mr. Fontaine first worked with Mr. Durkin at the Rodale Theatre in a production of "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat," and he has also worked with Heidi Johnson in a production of "Carnival" in New York.
