BK & THE BAR is more than a restaurant

The following excerpts are taken from: The Long Island Advance, March 31, 1983 by JoAnn McGrath.

If you applauded the salvation of the London Bridge - despite the unsettling vision of its new digs being in the Arizona desert - you'll be enchanted to know that Skitch Henderson's popular Manhattan watering hole, Daly's Dandelion, is alive and well - if not intact - and living in Bellport.

The "porch" from that famous and recently demolished Third Avenue meeting place is now part of the BK on Main Street.

It has now expanded from a soda fountain atmosphere (albiet pizzazzier than most soda dispensing establishments), into a full-fledged and elegant dining room with a fully stocked bar that dominates the main dining area.

Its three-sided shape - refashioned by Bob and Steve from the original counter - is bound to please many seeking social diversion.

The BK will still serve up the very special homemade dishes for which it has become known - but more of them. Helping to keep the kitchen producing its specialties will be a super cookerwoman, Pam Raymond, who has graced the kitchens of the Old Inlet Inn in Bellport and the Casino Beach Inn on Fire Island.

The BK is open for breakfast on weekends only. Lunch and dinner are served seven days a week and, after 11 p.m., there is a supper menu available.

Reservations are not accepted.

AN OLD-FASHIONED CIRCUSY MUSICAL

July 6th - July 24th

The beginnings of the greatest show on earth! The Barnum and Bailey circus! Jugglers, clowns, acrobats, tightrope walkers and all sorts of circus antics bounce on and off the stage as we see the life of P.T. Barnum unravel before us. This old-fashioned musical reminds us of a time long gone, of magic and romance and spectacle. The Cy Coleman score with lyrics by Michael Stewart include JOIN THE CIRCUS, BLACK AND WHITE, THE COLORS OF MY LIFE and COME FOLLOW THE BAND. It's a treat for all ages!

Annie

July 27th - August 14th

Everybody loves Little Orphan Annie! Broadway's newest release has charmed millions with its bright youthful optimism. Daddy Warbucks, Sandy, Annie and all her orphan friends jump right off the comic book pages singing and dancing all the songs that have become classics such as TOMORROW, YOU'RE NEVER FULLY DRESSED WITHOUT A SMILE, MAYBE, IT'S A HARD KNOCK LIFE and N.Y.C. Follow the story of Little Orphan Annie as she warms the hearts of everyone she meets, from Daddy Warbucks to F.D.R. and just see what she does for your kids!

A COMIC STRIP CHARMER

A WILD AND BRASSY MUSICAL COMEDY

August 17th - September 4th

This musical is recommended for adults only! Imagine if you will a small town in Texas, to be more exact, a highly respected little whorehouse in a small town in Texas, and all who frequent it, including the sheriff, the mayor, the nearby football team and just about everyone else (except, of course the ladies). "But, mah oh mah, there shore are purty ones insahd, yessir." What a wild and brassy musical with the hottest choreography and the sweetest country-western singing you'll ever see or hear!

Who's Who

DENNIS SOMES (Vernon) is a native of Philadelphia and comes to Gateway having just completed a part in the soon-to-be released movie "Lonely Guys," starring Steve Martin. Although new to the Gateway stage, Dennis is no newcomer to Musical Theatre. His first professional job was in "No, No Nanette," and his long list of credentials goes on to include leading roles in "The Robber Bridegroom," "Godspell," "I Do, I Do," "South Pacific," "Grease," "Meet Me In St. Louis," "Oh Calcutta" and "The Best Little Whorehouse In Texas." As if all of this is not enough, Dennis is also the Founder and Director of the Avalon Summer Theatre in New Jersey.

LORENA IVKOVICH (Sonia) comes to the Gateway straight from Las Vegas, where she was lead Singer and Dancer at the famous Dunes Hotel. Originally from Pittsburgh, Lorena moved to New York five years ago where she is kept busy with many recording projects during the day and performing in clubs throughout Manhattan at night. Lorena is a 1980 Graduate of the American Academy of Dramatic Arts. Some of her more recent musical credits include "Guys and Dolls," "Kismet," and "Fiddler On The Roof."

KAREN K. NELSON (Costume Designer) returns to Gateway for her Fifth Season. Her long list of credentials includes designing for shows ranging from "Gypsy" to "Merchant of Venice" at such well-known theatres as the Cleveland Playhouse, Rochester Shakespeare Theatre and Red Barn Playhouse. Karen now lists New York City as her home, and she will be going back to Manhattan in the fall to continue her career as a designer for Broadway and Off-Broadway productions.

JEFF BALLANTE (Lighting Designer) is welcomed back to the Gateway Playhouse for his Fourth Consecutive Season. He brings many years of technical and design experience to Gateway, where 1982 theatre goers will surely remember his stunning lights for our productions of "Gemini" and "Beatlemania." When not at Gateway, Jeff is a Lighting Designer for Brooklyn College, where he is already working on a design for their fall production of "Cabaret."

JAMES KANE (Stage Manager) returns to Gateway for his second season. A Graduate of Wagner College, Jim brings a wealth of stage managing experience to this production - having already stage managed well over 30 shows in his career. Most recently he was Stage Manager for a production of "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream," in New York.

JOSEPH CHURCH (Musical Director) Gateway audiences will remember him as Stanley in "I Love My Wife" and as Musical Director for "Grease," "Peter Pan," and "The Pirates of Penzance." Mr. Church has conducted over 40 musicals and operas. He is Composer-in-residence for the Riverside Shakespeare Company, and has composed music for the cult sensation "An Evening With Joan Crawford." Recently, Mr. Church conducted Charles Strouse's Nightingale at the Alaska Repertory Theatre.

MICHAEL BOYER (Set Designer/Technical Director) recently moved to New York City, following a seven year stay as resident Set Designer and Technical Director for the Winston-Salem Little Theatre. While there, he designed over 40 productions ranging from "Music Man" to "Mousetrap."

Since his arrival in New York, he has designed Off-Broadway for the Jewish Repertory Theatre and the East Lynn Company. Most recently, he designed the Chepstow Mansions Ltd. production of Barrie Keefe's, "Frozen Assets." The Gateway Management welcomes Michael to their Production Staff for the 1983 Season.

ROBERT DURKIN (Director-Choreographer) returns to Gateway. This time for our entire season. Shows he has directed and choreographed here in the past include: "No, No Nanette," "Jesus Christ Superstar," "Shenandoah," "Westside Story," "Candide," "The Robber Bridegroom," "Pippin," "Oklahoma," and "The Rocky Horror Show." Mr. Durkin has directed and choreographed in New York City and throughout the country for several noted stock, regional, summer and dinner theatres. On Long Island, he has directed and choreographed for the Westbury Music Fair, as well as for the Gateway Playhouse. He attended college at the Boston Conservatory of Music. After several years of experience as a performer he made the choice to switch roles from Performer to Director/Choreographer, and has worked as one for the past 15 years. In 1980, the West Point Military Academy requested his services as Director/Choreographer for their annual "One Hundredth Night Show," a tradition at West Point for over One Hundred Years. This gave him the distinction of being the first civilian to have ever staged this production.

Hear it.

See it.

Enjoy it.

All year long, Long Island is teeming with cultural events. You can enjoy the soaring work of great ballet masters.
Listen to the great operatic or symphonic masterworks. Or watch the magic of fine theatre.

Pick a play. Choose a chamber orchestra. Browse at a gallery. Muse at a museum. Opt for an opening night.

Or grab a grand finale.

For exciting dance, dinner theatre,
casual concert or formal fare, you'll find it on Long Island.

Hear it. See it. Enjoy it.
It's all right in your own backyard.

LILCO

Do it on Long Island.
