BK & THE BAR is more than a restaurant

The following excerpts are taken from: The Long Island Advance by JoAnn McGrath.

If you applauded the salvation of the London Bridge - despite the unsettling vision of its new digs being in the Arizona desert - you'll be enchanted to know that Skitch Henderson's popular Manhattan watering hole, Daly's Dandelion, is alive and well - if not intact - and living in Bellport.

The "porch" from that famous and recently demolished Third Avenue meeting place is now part of the BK on Main Street.

It has now expanded from a soda fountain atmosphere (albiet pizzazzier than most soda dispensing establishments), into a full-fledged and elegant dining room with a fully stocked bar that dominates the main dining area.

Its three-sided shape - refashioned by Bob and Steve from the original counter - is bound to please many seeking social diversion.

The BK will still serve up the very special homemade dishes for which it has become known - but more of them.

The BK is open for breakfast on weekends only. Lunch and dinner are served seven days a week and, after 11 p.m., there is a supper menu available.

Reservations are not accepted.

About the Show ...

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is a joyous rock musical based on the Old Testament story of Jacob's favorite son, Joseph, and his coat of many colors. Narrated at a lively pace, the story swings as the characters sing in a wide variety of musical styles.

According to the Old Testament, Jacob the Canaanite gave his favorite son, Joseph, a beautiful colorful coat as a symbol of his special love. Jacob's other sons were quite jealous of Joseph. When Joseph predicted, while interpreting a dream, that his brothers would one day bow down to him, the brothers became enraged and plotted to kill Joseph. Instead, at the last minute Joseph's brothers decided to sell him to the Egyptians as a slave. Upon returning to Jacob, the brothers pretended Joseph was murdered by a band of brigands. Jacob was heartbroken. Meanwhile Joseph had many experiences in Egypt, such as enslavement, seduction by the pharaoh's wife, and imprisonment. It was Joseph's skill as a dream interpreter that saved him, and led him to a position of power which eventually reunited Joseph with his family.

Inspired by this tale, Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice, the creators of Jesus Christ Superstar, Evita and Cats, wrote Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat in March of 1968 as a 15-minute piece for London's Colet Court School boys' choir. It became so popular that with each performance the show grew in length. When Decca Records recorded the musical, its performance time was lengthened to 30 minutes. In February 1973 Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat began a 7-month run at the West End of London, where the final changes were developed.

This final version is the full-length rock opera that was performed Off Broadway and eventually on Broadway.

SEVEN BRIDES FOR SEVEN BROTHERS

What do you have when there's a whole bunch of pretty brides and a whole bunch of good looking brothers? You have a whole lot of romance and a heck of a lot of fun. Beautiful costumes and settings surround this heart-warming tale of young love and small town adventure. This version of the 1954 award-winning movie musical is perfect family entertainment with lots of high-kicking, handspringing, cartwheeling, backflipping excitement and a real down home feeling. This is a musical that never stops dancing and dancing and dancing.

WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Based on the classic Spencer Tracy - Katherine Hepburn comedy of the same name, this is the story of one of the girls who is "one of the boys." This newest release from Broadway is slick and shiny and has all the right energy in all the right places. With a classy, sexy and very self-assured leading lady and a whole chorus tapping behind her how can you miss? John Kander and Fred Ebb, the authors of CABARET, have written a bright and witty score that dazzled all the critics and marks the show as the definitive flashy and brassy adult musical comedy.
