BK & THE BAR is more than a restaurant

The following excerpts are taken from: The Long Island Advance by JoAnn McGrath.

If you applauded the salvation of the London Bridge - despite the unsettling vision of its new digs being in the Arizona desert - you'll be enchanted to know that Skitch Henderson's popular Manhattan watering hole, Daly's Dandelion, is alive and well - if not intact - and living in Bellport.

The "porch" from that famous and recently demolished Third Avenue meeting place is now part of the BK on Main Street.

It has now expanded from a soda fountain atmosphere (albiet pizzazzier than most soda dispensing establishments), into a full-fledged and elegant dining room with a fully stocked bar that dominates the main dining area.

Its three-sided shape - refashioned by Bob and Steve from the original counter - is bound to please many seeking social diversion.

The BK will still serve up the very special homemade dishes for which it has become known - but more of them.

The BK is open for breakfast on weekends only. Lunch and dinner are served seven days a week and, after 11 p.m., there is a supper menu available.

Reservations are not accepted.

Joseph and the amazing technicolor dreamcoat

July 4 - July 22

From the creator of CATS and EVITA comes this brilliant fantastical musical. Joseph had prophetic dreams and was given a coat of many colors by his father Jacob. It was red and yellow and green and brown and blue and scarlet and black and olive and peach and ruby and violet and fawn and lilac and gold and mauve and cream and silver. It was magnificent. Watch the story of Joseph unfurl in all its multiple colors with Pharaohs and camels and harem girls and dreams and hear some of the most beautiful music ever written for Broadway.

SEVEN BRIDES FOR SEVEN BROTHERS

July 25 - August 12

What do you have when there's a whole bunch of pretty brides and a whole bunch of good looking brothers? You have a whole lot of romance and a heck of a lot of fun. Beautiful costumes and settings surround this heartwarming tale of young love and small town adventure. This version of the 1954 award-winning movie musical is perfect family entertainment with lots of high-kicking, handspringing, cartwheeling, backflipping excitement and a real down home feeling. This is a musical that never stops dancing and dancing and dancing.

WOMAN OF THE YEAR August 15 - September 2

Based on the classic Spencer Tracy-Katherine Hepburn comedy of the same name, this is the story of one of the girls who is "one of the boys." This newest release from Broadway is slick and shiny and has all the right energy in all the right places. With a classy, sexy and very self-assured leading lady and a whole chorus tapping behind her how can you miss? John Kander and Fred Ebb, the authors of CABERET, have written a bright and witty score that dazzled all the critics and marks this show as the definitive flashy and brassy adult musical comedy.

WHO'S WHO

RICHARD BARRY (Jackson) has just returned from touring with Periwinkle Productions and their award winning show, "America Yes". He has worked for such theatres as "The Actors Theatre" in Louisville, Kentucky to the "California Actors Theatre". He has also worked at many summer stocks throughout the U.S. and Canada. Last fall he presented "The Woolgatherer" with his wife Cathie at the Theatre Down Under in Lexington, Kentucky. The latest production that he and his wife have been involved with is his seven week old son Michael, to whom he dedicates this show.

LORENA IVKOVICH (Rhetta) began her career with a dance scholarship at the age of 8 and since then has performed in and choreographed such musicals as Guys & Dolls, Kismet & Fiddler on the Roof. Upon her 1980 graduation from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, Lorena traveled with her night club act to the Dunes Hotel in Las Vegas, and has continued to perform around the New York City night club circuit as well as appearing on Cable TV. She made her film debut in the motion picture "Dawn of the Dead!" Lorena returns to the Gateway Playhouse after playing the lead roles in last season's productions of "They're Playing Our Song" and "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas".

MICHAEL JAYE (LM) since receiving his B.S. degree in Music Education Michael has spent the past ten years performing in community, regional and summer stock theatres as well as film. Most recently he was seen on stage at the Candlewood Playhouse in Connecticut where he portrayed the role of Vernon Gersch in "They're Playing Our Song." Although new to the Gateway Stage, Michael's talents are certainly not new to fellow cast member Jane Wasser, who starred with him in "They're Playing Our Song." When not performing on stage Michael can also be found teaching music throughout the Metropolitan Area.

TOM SINGER (Jim) has been touring for the past three years with his show Touch The Air, an imaginary musical for children produced by the Shadow Box Theatre. He appeared on PBS in the Meredith Monk movie ELLIS ISLAND. He co-authored the rock musical Born To Wrap seen at Manhattan Punch Line and the musical review Young Gifted & Broke at the No Smoking Playhouse and the Quagh Theatre. He has performed in summerstock and cabarets, recorded records for Sweet Pickles and most recently authored "The Safety Musical" to be presented for the children of NY City next fall.

JANE WASSER (Prudie) has sung and danced in just about every performance showcase from Catskill Nightclub resorts to cruise ship cabarets, in such far off places as Acapulco and Alaska. She has performed extensively in regional and summer stock theatres throughout the United States. Currently living in New York, Jane recently appeared in the long running off-Broadway musical "Eat the Clock". Immediately following the closing of "Pump Boys..." Jane will once again pack her bags and leave Bellport for Pennsylvania where she will star in "Annie" at the Prather Dinner Theatre.

STEVE WILLETS (Eddie) Just Recently completed his job as leader of the ship orchestra on the Hawaiian Cruise of the S.S. Independence. He spent the past three seasons at Opryland in Nashville, Tennessee where he served as Musical Director/Pianist for their stage shows as well as appearing on a PBS musical special about Nashville. Steve has played in nightclubs and cabarets in such places as Waikiki, Dallas, Washington D.C. Hilton Head Island, Tampa and Atlanta. In past years Steve has also done studio work and played back-up piano for Billy Daniels and Jimmy Rodgers.

DREW SCOTT HARRIS (Director) With the passing of his thirtieth birthday, Drew Scott Harris is also celebrated the opening of his fortieth production as director/choreographer. Mr. Harris began his career on the stage as a child actor in plays written by his father, the Reverend Gerald Harris who wrote for the stage when he felt his sermons from the pulpit needed additional emphasis. Mr. Harris spent ten years with ACT touring in professional children's theatre. Four years at the Interlochen Arts Academy followed with Drew majoring in theatre and dance. Brown University and SUNY at Purchase continued his academic and artistic training. Upon completion of his university days, Mr. Harris then went on the New York City and began touring the country with MY FAIR LADY. A five year stint with this show followed and culminated with Mr. Harris' Broadway debut as stage manager, assistant choreographer, dance captain, and swing dancer of the 25th anniversary production of MY FAIR LADY starring Rex Harrison. In between all of the above, Mr. Harris was staging as much as possible in stock and university theatre, as well as staging for off-Broadway, national commercials, and The Guiding Light. At present, Mr. Harris maintains an ongoing production of MY FAIR LADY in the six-hundred seat theatre aboard the SS Norway, is preparing a revival of THE YEARLING for Atlanta's Theatre of the Stars, and is presenting a production of a new musical he has co-authored based on the life of Lillie Langtry for New York in the late summer.
