THE CATCH AT THE BK

Fresh seafood caught daily is the star of the BK's New Menu. For the most part, it is locally grown, caught, and now prepared from some of the finest recipes on Long Island. The servings are ample, the garnishes imaginative, and the vegetables are fresh and al dente. We will be serving all of this seven days a week, in our cozy dining room and bar.

AUGUST 21st — SEPTEMBER 8th

"Tonight, Tonight, Won't Be Just Any Night" ... when you bring the whole family to enjoy WEST SIDE STORY, America's favorite classic. Arthur Laurents, Stephen Sondheim and Leonard Bernstein's genius collaboration, based on a concept by Jerome Robbins to modernize a version of Romeo and Juliet, is still as controversial and universal today as it was when it opened in 1957. Hear the songs that have become classics, "Maria," "I Feel Pretty," "America," and "Tonight," and see the most exciting dance production of the season!

WEST SIDE STORY

They're Playing Our Song

SEPTEMBER 11th — SEPTEMBER 22nd

This razzmatazz musical comedy is about the love affair between two ambitious, clever, funny, but neurotic, New Yorkers who first meet to collaborate on some new songs. Their songwriting partnership is a big hit and before too long they start a personal relationship, move in together, and then the trouble begins. The couple breaks up, and then makes up, all to the tune of Neil Simon's hilarious one-liners, Carole Bayer Sager's inventive lyrics, and Marvin Hamlisch's beautiful score.

Who's Who

JOE GARREN (Guido Contini) is the first to admit he'd like to be always nine and he's every bit as crazy as Guido Contini. His favorite roles have included, Jud Fry in "Oklahoma," Teen Angel in "Grease", James in "Shenandoah," and Paul in "Company." He appeared with Camille Saviola (Mama Maddelena in the original Broadway cast of "Nine") at Manhattan Theatre Club, New York City. When he was nine, his parents bought a summer home in nearby Middle Island. He would like to thank his wife, Jennifer, for being his Luisa, Carla and Claudia.

ZACHARY J. MECHLEM (Guido at an early age) comes to the Gateway Playhouse straight from the National Tour of Oliver. A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Zachary is 12 years old, and attends the Cincinnati School for Creative and Performing Arts, where he is an Instrumental Music Major and a member of the Advanced Orchestra.

LORENA IVKOVICH (Luisa Contini) began her career at the age of 8, with a dance scholarship and since then has performed in and choreographed such musicals as "Guys and Dolls," "Kismet" and "Fiddler On The Roof." Upon her 1980 graduation from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, Lorena travelled with her nightclub act to the Dunes Hotel in Las Vegas and has continued to perform around the New York City nightclub circuit. She made her film debut in the motion picture "Dawn Of The Dead!" Lorena is no newcomer to the Gateway stage. You have seen her play the lead roles in "They're Playing Our Song," "Best Little Whorehouse In Texas," "Pump Boys and Dinettes," and of course, last season's "Woman Of The Year!"

JULIE CAMPBELL (Carla Albanese) This past year Julie returned from performing for 6 months on a cruise ship in the Hawaiian Islands, as well as touring the United States and Canada in "The Best Little Whorehouse In Texas." Two seasons ago, Julie played Grace Farrell in Gateway's production of "Annie."

CAROL VEIGH (Claudia Naradi) includes among some of her leading roles, Mabel in "The Pirates of Penzance," Juliet in "Romeo & Juliet," Rosamund in "The Robber Bridegroom," Mrs. Molly in "Hello Dolly" and Lili in "Carnival." She has performed in national tours of "Babes in Toyland" and "Androcles and the Lion." An alumnus of Wagner College, Carol has made appearances on "The Guiding Light," the "Joe Franklin Show" and the Paramount film, "Falling In Love." Paramount film, "Falling In Love."

NANETTE SAVARD (Guido's Mother) Nanette is a native of the Washington, D.C. area. She recently played Mrs. Sowerberry in the Music Theatre Associates National Tour of "Oliver!" Before that, she performed with the Washington Opera at the Kennedy Center, Arena Stage, and at the Harlequin Dinner Theatre in Rockville, Maryland.

KATHERINE HARBER (La Fleur) confesses a weakness for brown rice and Perrier, which supports her claim to being a native Californian. Though she has lived in New York City for the last four years, she received her B.A. in dance from the University of Southern California — sometime prior to moving east... Recently, she has spent much time performing on cruise ships in the Mediterranean, Scandanavia, Europe and the Caribbean — in between various stock, dinner theatre and touring jobs. Kate readily admits that she'd like to do everything, but her love and respect for young people keeps a long term goal of starting an International Children's Theatre in the forefront of her dreams.

BARBARA SECRIST (Lena Darling) is a graduate of Adelphi University with a B.F.A. in dance. She returns to the Gateway Playhouse. Some of her shows included "Joseph And The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat," "Seven Brides For Seven Brothers," "Woman Of The Year," "Baby" and most recently, "Evita." This past winter, Barbara performed at the Cohoes Music Hall in "Damn Yankees," "A Christmas Carol," and as "Dream Laurey" in "Oklahoma."

LORI LYNN BAUER (Stephanie Necrophorus) Although a newcomer to the Gateway stage, some of her favorite roles include Sally in "Follies," Ruth in "Wonderful Town," Ellie May in "Showboat" and Velma in "Chicago." She recently completed a tour with Atlantis Productions performing "Musicals In Revue." Last summer she performed at Opryland Entertainment Park in Nashville, Tennessee. Lori is a graduate of Ithaca College.

Who's Who

LESLIE HYLAND (Our Lady of the Spa) is a native of Dallas, Texas, currently residing in Manhattan. She trained for opera at the University of Texas in Austin, as well as the American Musical and Dramatic Academy in Manhattan. Previous roles include: Kate in "Kiss Me, Kate," Gretel in "Hansel and Gretel," Lucy in "The Telephone," and Suzzanna in "The Marriage of Figaro," and Joanne in "Godspell."

HOLLY GREENBERGER (Mama Maddelena) has sung and danced her way through numerous musicals. Holly has performed her nightclub act in Manhattan and appeared on the soap opera "Texas." Some of her favorite roles include the star to be in "Annie" at the New London Barn Playhouse and Catherine in "Pippin" at the Palace Theatre in New Hampshire. Holly is a graduate of Northwestern University.

ROSE NOVA (Saraghina) is a native New Yorker and yes, is Italian. Her wide range of credits include off-broadway to studio recording and numerous cabaret appearances. She is currently developing the role of Bea Benedict, a woman who takes on the looks and personality of Betty Boop in a new 1950's musical satire entitled "Beauty Shop Bop." To her family and friends, "Ti Voglio Bene."

ROBERT DURKIN (Director/Choreographer) as director and/or choreographer of 75 musicals, plays and revues, Mr. Durkin has been associated with such top regional or variety theatres as the Pennsylvania Stage Company and Westbury Music Fair. Most recently, he served as resident director/choreographer for Candlewood Playhouse in Danbury, Connecticut. Mr. Durkin has been chosen to choreograph the new Broadway musical "Calling All Kids," whose New York opening is set for the Fall of 1985.

CHERIE ROSEN (Musical Director) studied accompanying, arranging and conducting at New York University. Her work has taken her from Anchorage with the Alaska Repertory Theatre to the Bermuda Festival. She has arranged several original musicals for Off-Broadway Productions. This is Cherie's third season at the Gateway Playhouse. She's just completed a tour of "Oliver" and is currently arranging a new musical "Naughty Girl" by Chris Seppé.

LARRY SMITH (Stage Manager) Mr. Smith has been stage managing and doing technical direction in New York City for the past 6 years. His most recent Off Broadway productions are "Elvismania," "If This Isn't Love," and the world premier of Ionesco's "Variations on the Same Theme," presented at the Guggenheim. Prior to that, Mr. Smith had stage managed for several regional houses as well as summer stock theatres and dinner theatres across the country.

MICHAEL BOYER (Set Designer/Technical Director) returns for his third season at Gateway. Prior to moving to New York three years ago, he was the Designer/Technical Director at the Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Little Theatre, where he designed over 40 productions. Since his arrival in New York, he has designed productions for Off-Broadway and regional theatres. This winter he designed a production of "Who's Afraid of Virginia Wolf," which toured Northern Europe. Most recently he designed "Scapino" for the Lindenhurst Studio Theatre.

JEFF BELLANTE (Lighting Designer) returns to Gateway after having worked this past winter on Steven Sondheim's "Pacific Overtures," Hal Prince's New Musical Revue, "Diamonds" and the recently opened "Mayor." In between these musicals, Jeff designed lights for Fashion Shows and Industrial Films at various New York City production houses, as well as designing for Off Broadway. This production marks Jeff's 13th lighting design at the Gateway Playhouse.

DAVID & IRENE OSER (Costume) are designing and constructing their 17th full-length show for An Evening. "Kismet", our last show for An Evening was a challenge, but "Nine" should be called ninety or nine hundred because of the complexity of the show—not the quantity, but the chore of designing for sixteen women with sixteen different characters and bodies. But, don't forget the male lead & boys... they're easy." Recently the Oser's had their first NYC show. An original work at the EST Theatre of "Clara", the story of Mrs. Robert Shulman. Other costume credits include; "Fiddler", "Mame", "My Fair Lady", "Barnum", "Pirates" and "Annie."
