at Gateway shortly after his debut on the Gateway Playhouse Stage as an actor in 2001. Since then, his favorite Gateway acting credits include Jekyll and Hyde, The Scarlet Pimpernel, Miss Saigon, The Wedding Singer, Avenue Q, A Christmas Carol, Shrek and more. Since beginning his more permanent tenure at Gateway, Michael has taught many classes, led students in NYC showcases and is now the Director at The Gateway School for the Performing Arts. He also serves as Casting Director for the Gateway Mainstage. He is lucky enough to have seen many of his students move forward into their collegiate years in arts study and have successful careers in the Broadway world and beyond. Additionally, he was an influential member of the original Gateway's Haunted Playhouse team, becoming its director, spearheading its progress, and driving it ahead into its subsequent seasons. He is grateful to Paul Allan, Rachel Armitstead, the staff at Gateway, his brother John-Paul, his mother, and all those who worked hard to make this production possible. He also thanks Hosun, Hunter, Lauren and the students and their parents for their continued support and professionalism. He is especially grateful to his wife Jessica Baker, whom he met at Gateway, and was choreographer and his associate on this production. He is excited to announce that they are expecting their first child in January and working on this show has been amazing for all three of them! He thanks you and encourages your continued support and he hopes you enjoy the show.

Her favorite roles include Louise in Gypsy, Anita in West Side Story, Evita in Evita, and the Narrator in Joseph and the Amazing... Jessica has taught dance at multiple dance studios in the tri-state area and has taught musical theater dance technique at Barnard College. She met her husband, Michael Baker at The Gateway and has been happy to call it her home ever since. They are now expecting their first baby at the end of January. HOSUN MOON (Music Director) is the winner of the American Prize 2017-2018 for conducting Musical Theater. She has worked as a music director for numerous musicals teaching at Five Towns College, Suffolk County Community College, Lutheran High School, Huntington High School, and USDAN. Previous Gateway Shows: A Christmas Story, and A Chorus Line. Her chamber music performances with numerous ensembles have been heard in Carnegie Hall, 92nd St. Y, Merkin Concert Hall, The Riverside Church, St. John the Divine, LeFrak Concert Hall in The Aron Copland School of Music, Columbia University, Hofstra Cultural Center, Union Square Park, Bryant Park, SUNY at Stony Brook, and various churches in New York area. She also worked with the San Francisco Early Music Society Baroque Music Seminars, C. W. Post Chamber Music Festival (LIU Chamber Music Festival), and currently working as a Music Director at North Country Reform Temple in Glen Cove, NY.

HUNTER GREER (Production Stage Manager) is thrilled to be opening his 3rd conservatory show of the season! A recent graduate of The Florida State University (BA Theatre), this is Hunter's first season with Gateway. Credits include: Gateway's Haunted Playhouse, Little Mermaid Jr, Mary Poppins Jr (Gateway), Beauty & the Beast (Shenandoah Summer Music Theatre), The Addams Family (Florida State University). Endless thanks to everyone who's shown love and support, and helped me make it here!

DOUG HARRY (Lighting Designer) likes pies. He likes apple pie, strawberry, rhubarb pie and peach cobbler but especially blackberry and apple pie with extra thick cream or custard. He is not keen on blueberry pies. (They make him burp.) He likes cherry pie but only if the cherries are fresh. He really does not like coconut cr me pie and thinks pumpkin pie is vastly overrated. Being English he loves mincemeat pies at Christmas, especially the little ones. He also likes fruit cake. A lot. Thank you for your attention.
